Spread Your Wings This Summer

With the safety of our Garden family always on our minds, we are closely monitoring and evaluating the situation around Coronavirus (COVID-19) to ensure we are taking the necessary measures to protect the health and well-being of everyone connected to the Garden. Please be aware that all programs and events are subject to change as the situation evolves. Watch for the latest updates via email, Facebook and our website.

Don't miss out! If you're receiving the printed version of the newsletter, it means we don't have an email address for you. During this time of continuous change, we encourage you to update your email to receive communications from us that are much more timely and include updates on what's in bloom, virtual learning opportunities, gardening tips and more. Please consider doing so at GDBG.org/Email

Back Again With Even More Butterflies

Susan Garot, Executive Director

Butterflies & Blooms returns with a new theme, music takes center stage in the Schneider Family Grand Garden, we're preparing for our 25th birthday and there's so much more happening this summer!

We are eagerly awaiting spring and summer at the Garden. Our gorgeous spring blooms display kicks off in May (peak bloom around Mother's Day) and our two-day Garden Fair event will be back at the end of May to enhance your home garden.

After the success of our very first Butterflies & Blooms exhibit last year, we're excited to bring it back with a twist! Starting in June, we'll feature winged wonders from around North America, along with your favorite native butterflies, to show the importance of these pollinators (and more) in our ecosystem. Don't forget to check out the vibrant, tropical plants in our butterfly house and the gorgeous native flowers throughout the Garden!

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings will feature music in the Schneider Family Grand Garden with the Sanimax Concert Series (nine weekly concerts) and the Les Stumpf Ford Grand Concert Series (six concerts) throughout the summer. Plus, you can enjoy free admission on Wednesday evenings from 5-8 pm courtesy of our friends at BMO Harris Bank.

We're advancing our mission through the generosity of the following organizations:

- Rotary Club of Green Bay-School Tours
- Give Big Green Bay, US Bank Foundation-Butterflies & Blooms Exhibit

- Byron L. Walter Family Trust-Summer Intern Program
- Green Bay Packers Foundation, Cornerstone Foundation of Northeastern WI-Summer Children's Programming
- Greater Green Bay Community Foundation-Capacity Building
- Associated Bank, Weyers Family Foundation-WPS Garden of Lights

All of this activity and support is leading us to our 25th anniversary next year! To kick off our celebration planning, our Board and staff convened in January and we brainstormed some wonderful ideas. Our grand plans already include:

- A nationally-touring sculpture exhibit, Washed Ashore, at the Garden May-September 2021. Featuring giant sculptures of sea life made entirely of marine debris collected from beaches, it graphically illustrates the tragedy of plastic pollution in our oceans and waterways, including the Great Lakes.
- A variety of "25"-themed events.
- A number of free admission days to ensure we are engaging everyone in our community.

I look forward to seeing you and hearing from you throughout the summer!

Surround Yourself with Spectacular Spring Scenes

Mark Konlock, Director of Horticulture

Last fall we planted almost 45,000 new bulbs in preparation for spring's return. The Garden now has more than 300,000 bulbs, making our spring blooms display the largest seasonal display in the state, and an incredible experience worth sharing with your family and friends! Along with these beautiful blooming bulbs, other spring blossoms from crabapples and magnolias to perennials and native woodland ephemerals all add to the vibrant magic of the season. Let's melt those lingering winter blues and give you a little preview of what you can expect to see this spring at the Garden!

As you arrive and start your walk to the Fischer Visitor Center, you'll see a festive red, white and yellow Twister™ tulip blend and Spring Loaded® daffodil blend planted in alternating arcs. In front of the Visitor Center, be sure to take a peek at the Akebono tulips, a newer tulip that originates from Japan. The Japanese word, akebono, roughly translates to bright sky at daybreak. Does the word match the colors you see? Let us know!

This year, we've switched up some of the suppliers we worked with to highlight some new tulip blends throughout the Garden. In front of the Schierl Wellhouse you'll notice the red, white and pink Southpaw, Ace and Orthodox Stance tulip blends. A tulip blend called Slam Dunk will grace the area near the Kaftan Lusthaus. This blend will nicely coordinate with the butter color of the Lusthaus, a design tip we suggest you use in your own living space. Our new supplier also noticed that Wisconsinites love sports—big surprise!—so many of their tulip blends have sports related names. To top it all off they created a tulip called Green 'N Gold! We planted this one in the entrance to the Van Den Wymelenberg Color and Foliage Garden so if you're a Packers fan, make sure to snap a photo of these beauties when you're here in May.

Also, don't forget that our magnolias, which are nationally recognized as part of the Magnolia Multisite Collection™, bloom around the same time as our spring display. Be sure to visit the Magnolia Grove, located near the Matthew Schmidt Garden in the Schneider Family Grand Garden to see these cold-hardy trees of flowers that you can add to your own yard.

Blossoms start mid-April, with peak bloom anticipated for Mother's Day on May 10 (free admission for moms). It's a must see spring exhibit of flower power!

Save the Date for Summer Stunners

Make sure to come back this summer to check out a wide variety of flower displays, all designed, planned and grown by members of our Horticulture Team. Some themes to watch for include a Mardi Gras-inspired area in front of the Lusthaus, pretty patterns made from plants all around the Garden's main entrance, the candy land in the Nielsen Children's Garden, and a tropical paradise for pollinators in tandem with the return of our Butterflies & Blooms exhibit.

The Return of Butterflies & Blooms

June 1–August 31
Open daily | 10 am–5 pm

This summer, surround yourself with even more friendly pollinators and the plants they love! We're excited for the return of our interactive butterfly exhibit, Butterflies & Blooms, featuring butterflies from across North America. While you'll be delighted to interact with native fan favorites, such as the Tiger Swallowtail and the Monarch, we will also have up to 20 new species of butterflies (and a few moths) to pique your curiosity about these captivating creatures. Most are not seen in the Wisconsin wild, but hail from the warmer climates of Florida, Texas and Mexico.

325 new butterflies will arrive each week for a total of nearly 4,500 butterflies this summer. On any given day, 500 or more butterflies will be fluttering around the house for your viewing pleasure.

Want to heighten your butterfly encounter? Take part in exhibit activities:

- Butterfly Feeding is available any time the house is open!
- While in the house, be sure to check out our What's in Flight board daily to know exactly which butterflies and moths you can expect to find.

- Transform into a scientist and uncover pollinator wonders with a visit to the Learning Lab.
- View the full Butterfly Life Cycle in action at select times as we feature the caterpillars of the Zebra Longwing, in addition to the return of the Emergence Chamber.
- Explore the house's Colorful Indoor Garden with more than 1,500 annual and tropical plants of 25+ different species.
- For a more close-up experience, join us for Breakfast with the Butterflies. You'll visit the house before it opens, help prepare the fruit dishes for the butterflies and enjoy a breakfast treat yourself!
Limited space available; please register in advance.

Outside the butterfly house, our native pollinator garden has established itself since last year and is a prime example of a flourishing garden that bees and butterflies love.

We can't wait for you to visit and be inspired by more pollinators and plants this summer!

Volunteers

Spring is here and several volunteer opportunities in special events, gardening, Butterflies & Blooms, educational programs and facility maintenance are now open for signup.

Volunteers are truly the heart and soul of the Garden and we wouldn't be able to share its beauty and host our variety of special events without them. Our appreciation program provides a thank you once 25, 50, 75 and 100 or more hours in a calendar year are reached, starting with a personal permanent Garden name badge. It's our small way of giving back for all of the time you have shared.

Sign up is easy! Just complete a volunteer application and view available needs on our website at GBBG.org/Volunteer.

Weed & Feed

June 10, July 8, August 12 & September 9

Help us keep the Garden looking its best as we welcome thousands of visitors! Work side-by-side with staff as they guide you through the tasks for the evening and then enjoy a meal provided by the Garden.

Find the Perfect Pollinator Plant for Your Living Space

Lindsay Hendricks, Assistant Director of Horticulture

This year our horticulturists each chose their top five annuals to share with you at Garden Fair! These have grown well in the Garden, are 'fan favorites' with visitors and aren't the easiest to find at local nurseries. And most are pollinator-friendly, too!

Quantities are limited, so make sure to take advantage of this rare opportunity. (Note: All plants are annuals; we are not able to sell perennials at this time due to permitting issues.)

Here's a sneak peek of what you could grow in your own living space:

Gold Landmark™ Lantana

Horticulturist Pick | Mark Konlock

Botanical Name | Lantana camara

'Balandgold'

Size | 15–20 in. tall, 18–24 in. wide

Light | Full Sun

Bloom Time | All Summer

Pollinator | Butterflies & Hummingbirds

Balls of golden flowers cover this vigorous growing, heat and drought-tolerant mounding annual. Add to your garden bed or in containers to give you a pop of color with a deer-resistant scent.

Why I chose this plant: Hey, we're from Green Bay, this is the perfect Packers plant—green and gold!

Flowering Tobacco

Horticulturist Pick | Ryan Hammes
Botanical Name | Nicotiana sylvestris
Size | 3–5 ft. tall, 1–2 ft. wide
Light | Full Sun to Part Shade
Bloom Time | Summer to Fall
Pollinator | Butterflies & Hummingbirds

Beautiful trumpet-shaped flowers provide good color and fragrance. Grows best in rich, well-drained soil with afternoon shade in hot summer climates. Deadhead spent flowers for continuous blooms.

Why I chose this plant: Its accelerated growth and shooting star-like flower form is perfect for attracting butterflies.

Lion's Ear

Horticulturist Pick | Lindsay Hendricks
Botanical Name | Leonotis leonurus
Size | 6–8 ft. tall, 2–3 ft. wide
Light | Full Sun
Bloom Time | Summer to Fall
Pollinator | Hummingbirds

Orange, tubular flowers resemble a lion's mane, while hanging flower petals resemble a lion's ears. Grows best in summer heat, full sun with regular watering.

Why I chose this plant: It's a hummingbird magnet! We're selling plants grown from seeds saved from those in the Rose Cottage Garden.

Raspberry Archangel™ Angelonia

Horticulturist Pick | Ashley Barkow
Botanical Name | Angelonia angustifolia 'Balarcaspim'
Size | 12–14 in. tall, 10–12 in. wide
Light | Full Sun
Bloom Time | Summer to Fall
Pollinator | Bees

Huge flowers are vibrant against glossy dark green leaves. Thrives in extreme heat, humidity and drought, and only needs deadheading once or twice during the active growing season.

Why I chose this plant: It demands very little maintenance. It grew to its mature size quickly and was vibrantly pink all season long.

Fireworks Gomphrena

Horticulturist Pick | Alyssa Giese
Botanical Name | Gomphrena pulchella 'Fireworks'
Size | 4 ft. tall, 4 ft. wide
Light | Full Sun
Bloom Time | Late Spring to Fall
Pollinator | Bees & Butterflies

It has many long-lasting, hot pink flowers tipped with bright yellow and more blooms per plant than other gomphrenas. It's described as being "tough as nails" because it's drought tolerant and low maintenance.

Why I chose this plant: It has unique blooms that are great for cut flower bouquets that also dry very well.

Pink Morn Opera Supreme™ Petunia

Horticulturist Pick | Sarah Pingel
Botanical Name | Petunia 'Pink Morn' Opera Supreme™
Size | 6 in. tall, 24 in. wide; trailing habit
Light | Sun to Light Shade
Bloom Time | Spring to Fall
Pollinator | Butterflies & Hummingbirds

Packed with blooms of pink with a white halo and yellow center from its start to finish, with little maintenance, just general watering and fertilizing. It's great either in the ground or in a container for a waterfall effect.

Why I chose this plant: It's a show-stopping petunia and a 2007 All-America Selections Winner.

Profusion Red Zinnia

Horticulturist Pick | Kate Miller
Botanical Name | Zinnia 'Profusion Red'
Size | 8–14 in. tall, 12–15 in. wide
Light | Full to Part Sun
Bloom Time | Late Spring to Fall
Pollinator | Butterflies & Birds

These long-lasting, true red blooms refuse to fade and are tolerant of drought, wind and rain. Great for containers, garden beds and a cutting garden.

Why I chose this plant: These blooms can't be matched! It blooms forever, is easy to grow from seed and virtually maintenance free.

Secure the Garden's Future for Generations to Come with a Legacy Gift

What will your Legacy be?

Connecting people with nature is at the heart of everything we do at the Garden. Whatever your connection to the Garden is, it becomes timeless when you leave a legacy gift, ensuring future Garden lovers can experience the amazing beauty and adventure we offer for years to come.

Recent Legacy Gifts received by the Garden:

Tom Bartelt

East High graduate, high school teacher and philanthropist to Green Bay nonprofits

Grace Ebert

long-time WPS employee and active gardener

Sandy Hassler

one of our early board members and founder of the Flower Pot Café at Garden Fair

Ron & Pauline Heim

supporters of more than 30 nonprofits in the Green Bay area

Arleen VandenHeuvel

first-time visitor to the Garden in 2016

Dr. Bill & Sonja Jane Wanamaker

Bill was a horticulture volunteer and board member

These Legacy donors have bequeathed more than $550,000 in the last year, demonstrating their commitment to helping us sustain and support the Garden for years to come. While their stories vary, all were touched by and positively impacted the Garden through their volunteer work. Caring passionately for our community, they gave their time and talents to ensure the vitality and growth of the Garden from one generation to the next.

Grow Your Business through Sponsorship

Be a part of the unforgettable and unique experiences this summer that will inspire creativity and provide engaging and wholesome entertainment for the entire family. Connect with people throughout the region, and associate your brand with a love of nature, the amazing beauty of the Garden and unforgettable memories made with colleagues, clients, friends and families.

For information on how you can become a part of the Garden's Perennial Legacy Society, a community of generous and visionary supporters who have pledged a legacy gift to the Garden, or about sponsorship, contact Cindy Berton, Director of Development, at 920.491.3691 ext. 104 or cberton@gbbg.org.

Bring Butterflies & Blooms Home with You

Our WPS Trellis Gift Shop will be filled with butterflies again this summer! Wind chimes, garden stakes, home décor, coasters, children's dress up wings and even habitats to raise your own butterflies at home will be available for purchase. Selection will change over the summer so be sure to stop in often to see what's new.

Celebrate Good Times with a Nature-Inspired Rental

Book your private event or party at the Garden! Whether you're indoors or outdoors, your guests will be surrounded by breathtaking and inspirational scenes of nature, full of fresh flowers and vibrant colors, which will make memorable experiences for everyone invited. We have the perfect space for you and your guests for any occasion—weddings, showers, birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, business events and meetings, picnics and more.

For information on hosting an event, visit Gbbg.org/Event or contact our Sales Team at 920.491.3691 ext. 113 or rentals@gbbg.org.

You Make the Difference

122 individuals donated more than 9,200 hours in 2019 to provide Garden visitors with an engaging, inspiring and refreshing experience.

Our volunteers dedicated their time and talent throughout every season to help ensure the Garden remains one of the most remarkable places to visit in northeast Wisconsin. In 2019, the following volunteers shared between 25 and 380 hours of their time for a total surpassing 8,700 hours. They are an invaluable asset to us, but putting a number on it, they added a value exceeding $221,000!
