Tunes & Blooms in the Garden: Green Bay Botanical Garden
Brings Back Summer Concerts

*Sanimax Concerts and Les Stumpf Ford Grand Concerts
Highlight a Variety of Music Genres This Summer*

(GREEN BAY, WI) (May 2, 2023) — Enjoy tunes and blooms in the beautiful scenery of Green Bay Botanical Garden this summer!

Guests will be able to listen to live music, take in the sights of the stunning Schneider Family Grand Garden, and even explore our brand-new Carol & Bruce Bell Children's Garden – a 2.5-acre outdoor wonderland that connects nature, play, and learning. In addition to our regular concert schedule, kids and families can check out special performances and outdoor fun during the Kids' Show Miniseries in the Council of Critters Amphitheater from 1–3 pm on select Sundays this summer! Learn more at GBBG.org/BellChildrensGarden.

Beverages and light snacks will be available to purchase in the Garden's Concessions Building during our evening concerts, including the option to pre-order a boxed dinner from a local vendor to pick up the night of the concert. Guests are also encouraged to bring their own picnic (no beverage carry-ins allowed), and guests can enjoy drop-in activity stations and lawn games before and during concerts.

To make your experience more enjoyable, advance tickets are recommended for all concerts.

Garden members can enjoy at-the-door admission for the Thursday Sanimax Concert Series (Select Thursdays, June 8–August 17). The general public can purchase advance tickets or at-the-door tickets the evening of the concert, based on availability. The Les Stumpf Ford Grand Concert Series is open to Garden members and the general public, and kicks off on Friday, June 2 with additional concerts through September.

For more details, including how to purchase tickets, pre-order a boxed dinner, or sign up to volunteer, visit GBBG.org/Concerts.
